

Innovative Airmen...Airlift Excellence...Respect For All!

62 AW/CC Roll Call

18 June 2014

Team McChord,

Every day, I get to witness the incredible passion our Airmen have for their jobs. Our core values of Integrity, Service, and Excellence are enduring qualities that directly translate to careers outside of the military. That's why I'm so pleased to host the 2014 Hire America's Heroes (HAH) Air Force Symposium right here at McChord Field! HAH connects America's major corporations with the rich skills and abilities of military service members and their families. This Friday, we'll have over 60 people from various companies visiting McChord Field to gain an understanding about the amazing things our Total Force does and what we bring to the civilian workforce. New Airman Comprehensive Assessment Worksheet

Our evaluation system has been a hot topic over the past couple years. Recently, Gen Welsh and Chief Cody announced plans to implement a more comprehensive Air Force evaluation system for officers AND enlisted members. We've taken the first step with the Assessment. The new form takes a holistic approach to feedback and includes a self-assessment, a detailed evaluation of expected and/or current performance, and specific discussion areas. Be sure to take some time and become familiar with the changes.
