

Airlift Excellence...Innovative Airmen...Respect For All!

62 AW/CC Roll Call

14 May 2015

62d Airlift Wing Instruction (AWI) 36-1

This instruction establishes policies and procedures for the 62 AW and provides a standardized approach to daily activities. It applies to all personnel in the 62 AW and is located on the 62 AW SharePoint site.

Team McChord,

Everyone likes the new stuff, right? The new car, the cool clothes, the latest gadget (anyone want to buy a slightly used selfie stick?). When we get something new, we usually treat it with a lot of care because we probably just forked over some hard-earned cash to make the purchase. Over time, that same care begins to fade as we start counting down the days until we get our hands on the next shiny new toy. As Airmen, our Air Force entrusts and expects us to be good stewards of our Nation's resources. Especially in this fiscally constrained environment, we will likely continue to experience challenges finding all the dollars we need to be 100% ready. Whether it's a C-17, a K-loader, PMEL equipment, or our numerous facilities here at McChord Field, we have to do everything we can to protect and preserve the stuff we have now. Managing Resources, including our Airmen's time, will go a long way in ensuring we're ready to execute our Global Reach mission 24/7—both now and in the future!

21 May Wingman Day!

This year's Wingman Day will be unique as the first half of the day you will get to select two courses that interest you. Everything you need to sign up is in the "Team McChord Wingman Day Guide" including an overall agenda for Wingman Day, course registration instructions, and course descriptions.
