

The McChord Way...Excellence, Innovation, Respect

62 AW/CC Roll Call

9 Oct 2015

Team McChord,

Happy Friday! You may have noticed the new 62d Airlift Wing Vision Statement as part of the letterhead above – The McChord Way...Excellence, Innovation, Respect. This statement should serve as a compass, guiding us as we accomplish the mission. Excellence...It’s one of the Air Force’s Core Values and an idea we must dedicate ourselves to in all aspects of our lives. Innovation...Now more than ever, we must seek creative, more efficient ways to safely save time, money, and energy. Respect...We must strive to implement a culture of dignity and respect. Without it, we cannot accomplish our mission.

What is our mission? The mission of the 62d Airlift Wing is to Deliver Safe and Reliable Global Airlift. In conjunction with our Vision Statement acting as our compass leading us to success, the Wing has Priorities we must focus on in order to accomplish our mission.

Those Priorities are:

- Provide Prime Nuclear Airlift Forces –The nation has entrusted us to be the only wing in the DoD with the great responsibility of transporting nuclear weapons and nuclear material. We must ensure we maintain that trust.
- Trusted, Responsive Worldwide Airlift – We must be ready to answer the call to deliver whatever, wherever, whenever it’s needed. Anywhere on the globe, whether it’s to deliver people, equipment, or humanitarian aid, we are trusted by the nation, and the world, to be there when called.
- Develop and Care for Airmen and Their Families – As the ops tempo increases, so too can stress and anxiety. We must be good Wingmen and take care of one another to include our family members, who also serve proudly!
- Advance Joint Basing and Team McChord Partnerships – We cannot accomplish our mission without the teamwork that is provided by Joint Basing and our other Team McChord partners. We are the most diverse base in the DoD and we should be proud of our partnerships.
- Treat Everyone with Dignity and Respect – As I said before, dignity and respect is vital to a professional workplace. Affording this atmosphere to all Airmen is paramount and expected.

Please become familiar with the Wing’s Vision, Mission and Priorities, and have a safe and happy Columbus Day weekend. Thank you all for everything you do!
